

The contribution of the Joint Action on Innovative Partnership for Action Against Cancer (iPAAC JA) to building capacity for cancer prevention

30 NOVEMBER 2021

16:00 – 17:30 CET

Online

Co-organised by International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC), Association of European Cancer Leagues (ECL), Cancer Society of Finland (CSF) and Finnish Institute for Health and Welfare (THL), with the participation of German Cancer Research Center (DKFZ), Joint Research Centre (JRC) and the European Commission.

The contribution of the Joint Action on Innovative Partnership for Action Against Cancer (iPAAC JA) to building capacity for cancer prevention

30 NOVEMBER 2021 | 16:00 – 17:30 CET | Online

Registration link: https://iarc.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_oO2gmS-IRfqQXFHQyqUTRq

30 November 2021 16:00 - 17:30 CET
16:00 – 16:05	Opening remarks Joachim Schüz (IARC)
16:05 – 16:10	iPAAC cancer prevention work package results & conclusions Satu Lipponen (Cancer Society of Finland) & Joachim Schüz (IARC)
16:10 – 16:20	Reflections on the future of cancer prevention - beyond iPAAC WP5 Elisabete Weiderpass (IARC)
16:20 – 16:40	Applying the learnings from iPAAC WP5 – How to advance sustainable prevention in the EU? chaired by Pekka Jousilahti (THL) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tools for influencing policy - Sandra Caldeira, JRC • Building capacity through collaboration in Germany - Susanne Weg-Remers, DKFZ • Civil society's role as capacity builders in cancer prevention - David Ritchie, ECL
16:40 – 16:50	Navigating through the IARC Learning Portal Carolina Espina (IARC) & Anouk Berger (IARC)
16:50 – 17:00	iPAAC WP5 and Europe's Beating Cancer Plan John F. Ryan (European Commission)
17:00 – 17:25	Q&A Session
17:25 – 17:30	Closing remarks Joachim Schüz (IARC)